

Technical Note: The 'Minimum Resolvable Feature size' (MRF) is calculated by the following formula:

$$MRF = \frac{\text{(an exposure light source wavelength in nm)} \times \text{(K factor)}}{\text{numerical aperture}}$$

where the K factor = 0.35