

$\frac{N_j}{N}$  = fractional bin hours for the cooling season; the ratio of the number of hours during the cooling season when the outdoor temperature fell within the range represented by bin temperature  $T_j$  to the total number of hours in the cooling season, dimensionless.