What is a credit report?

A credit report is a record of your credit history. It includes information about whether you pay your bills on time and how much you owe to creditors.

How did we use your credit report[s]?

We used information from your credit report[s] to set the terms of the credit we are offering you, such as the Annual Percentage Rate/down payment.

The terms offered to you may be less favorable than the terms offered to consumers who have better credit histories.

What if there are mistakes in your credit report[s]?

You have a right to dispute any inaccurate information in your credit report[s].

If you find mistakes on your credit report[s], contact [insert name of CRA(s)], which [is/are] the [consumer reporting agency/consumer reporting agencies] from which we obtained your credit report[s].

It is a good idea to check your credit report[s] to make sure the information [it contains/they contain] is accurate.

How can you obtain a copy of your credit report[s]?

Under Federal law, you have the right to obtain a copy of your credit report[s] without charge for 60 days after you receive this notice. To obtain your free report[s], contact [insert name of CRA(s)]:

- By telephone: Call toll-free: 1-877-xxx-xxxx
- By mail: Mail your written request to: [insert address]
