What is a credit report?
A credit report is a record of your credit history. It includes information about whether you pay your bills on time and how much you owe to creditors.

How did we use your credit report[s]?
We have used information from your credit report[s] to review the terms of your account with us.

Based on our review of your credit report[s], we have increased the annual percentage rate on your account.

What if there are mistakes in your credit report[s]?
You have a right to dispute any inaccurate information in your credit report[s].

If you find mistakes on your credit report[s], contact [insert name of CRA(s)], which are consumer reporting agencies from which we obtained your credit report[s].

It is a good idea to check your credit report[s] to make sure the information is accurate.

How can you obtain a copy of your credit report[s]?
Under federal law, you have the right to obtain a copy of your credit report[s] without charge for 60 days after you receive this notice. To obtain your free report[s], contact [insert name of CRA(s)]:
